

Maritime State University named after Admiral G.I. Nevelskoy

ROV PILOT TECHNICIAN GRADE II (IMCA) Educational program

From 2010 Maritime State University is certified center by International Marine Contractors Association

From 2010 Maritime State University is certified center by International Marine Contractors Association.

Maritime State University provides educational program Pilot Technician Grade II. This educational program is made to train and license pilots of ROVs.

Today Maritime State University is one of the leading educational institution concerning remotely operated vehicles of observation class in the world (ROV MATE Competition).

Basic Information

- Educational program Pilot Technician Grade II:
- 75 hours (theoretical and practical parts);
- Practical parts can be provided in the pool or from the board of the yacht in the open sea;
- ROVs: "Arctic Force", "Nimble", "MAX-300" (observation class);
- Participants receive the Pilot Technician Grade II Certificate and ROV personnel logbook;
- Low price of the program and high quality of training.

For further information please contact:

vita_yurchik@mail.ru

Viktoriya Yurchik

Director,

Scientific and Educational Projects Center

